The Cherubs Gave Them a Hard, Close Chase.

GOODWIN WILL PROVE A WONDER

Manager Wells' Men Are Fast Getting Into Playing Shape-Big Crowds Out to See the Game,

Othe Baseball News.

The individual who makes the statement that base-ball is on its last legs is muttering through his flowing locks. He is wrong. For with the mercury hovering near the half century point yesterday afternoon about 1,200 lovers of the game were induced to take chances and see Cherubs run up against the Senators.

When the two teams struck it was a pretty good clash, and the gentlemer pretty good clash, and the gentiemen from Washington had both hands full to win out. They illd win out, though, and did it through timely hitting. They hit good and strong, when hits counted, and had the Cherubs been as fortunate in that respect, the score would have been vastly different, for there were several good chances with men on bases, and had a good, long, clean hit been forthcoming, the Washington National Lenguers would have been defeated. have been defeated.

The Cherubs put up good resistance, anyway, and against a team of "big" uns" that has been in training for two weeks, they came out, kinks and all, with weeks, they came out, kinks and all, with credit to themselves and joy to the cranks, even though they lost the game. Dolan played at third. His throwing arm appeared to bother him some and he was somewhat slow in fielding, but need of practice is the natural cause of that. It is a question, of course, whether Dolan is stronger at third than Dundon. The latter at second worked in good shape, and can hardly be improved upon, but, of course, if Manager Wells finds it necessary, he will put Dundon on third and sary, he will put Dundon on third and Dolan at second. Flaherry, the little twirler who pitches with the wrong arm.

Dolan at second. Flaheriy, the little twirler who pitches with the wrong arm, and who gave the Cherubs so much trouble last season, showed up splendidly in centre field, and he will prove a competent substitute for Hargrove, when the latter finds it necessary to lay off.

Calhoun at first seemed in good shape, and Wrigley went after them as of old, hile Zhannon and Seybold allowed no rass to grow under their feet.

Vignaux caught the entire game, and while his throwing down was a little shy, as gobbled in the foul flys with alacrity and soueszed the strikes and bails. Chesbro pitched three limings. He was far from being in his usual condition, for in those three innings the opposition scored five runs and made seven of their twelve hits. On the other hand Goodwin, the young twirler from Pennsylvania, had Washington guessing all the time.

Goodwin will prove a wonder if he doesn't work too hard before the season begins.

Neither are the Washington players in good condition. They are still stiff and sore. But they put up a fairly good game with the stick, and Casey at third is already doing star work. Padden at second is also getting in shape and helped to nail a few Cherubs in great shape, although he allowed Dolan to steal on him twice, when he might have caught him. Gettman in legt is a good spinier and captured one or two hard ones. He also excelled with the bat, catching three good hits and three runs. Weyling was not as effective as he might have been; nor was Dunkle. The latter has great speed and depends much upon that. McGuire is the same old back-stop, and puts the hall right down, much too quick for the infield, however, in their present condition.

These exhibition games are to be well-played. Neither team will be willing to lose without an argument, and some splendld debates may be expected. At the same time the games will give the players an opportunity to develop their various little tricks, and splendld chances are given to practice base-running, without meeting with the protest of the crowd, should they fall into disaster in their attempts to steal.

Hargrove is in the city and was in unform yesterday afternoon, but did not play because he needed practice. He will probably he ready to take his accustomed place in center field by the latter part of the week.

Two of the new rules were tested yes-terday. Chesbro balked in throwing to first and the runner was presented with a base, and a foul caught on a line by the catcher was counted as a strike. Last season a foul so caught put the batter

These two teams will play again this afternoon at 4 o'clock, weather permitting, and the Cheruba will try to get back the game they lost.

Bishop and Donovan will probably pitch to-day, with Hess behind them.

This year's lesue of Spalding's Official Base-Ball Guide is a remainable compendium of the national galle. It is feeting the painstaking care with which the veteran editor. Henry Chadwich, has performed his duties. The articles on how the game should be conducted are especially interesting, and the official re-sords of the League and minor league and college teams are very complete. Instructions are also given, which if followed by an intelligent player are sure to result in improvement. The altera-

JIMPLECUTES LOST.

The First Game of the Season Went to the Orioles.

The Jimplecutes played their first game of the season yesterday afternoon against the Orioles. The Orioles won out by the close score of 5 to 4. The "Jimps" made a big raily in the ninth inning and got the bases full, but the necessary hit to win the game was not forthcoming and the Orioles flew off with the vic-fory.

The game was well played throughout,

The second game was played this afternoon on the University athletic field in the presence of the banner crowd of the season. Nearly every student in the college was on the fleid and there was enthusiasm galore. MANY GIRLS.

In the grandstand a large number of visiting girls who are here to attend the Easter gayeties, helped to cheer the Orange and Blue on to victory. The contest was called at 2:45 by Umpire Betts. Wills walked and was advanced to second by Curley's bunt. He stole third. Martin was given a pass to first, with the bases full. Rea hit a hot one to deep centre for three bases. Wills and Curley scored on the hit, but Martin was nalled at the home plate. Bonney fouled to Hirsch Stentoe singled to in was named at the nome plate. Bonney fouled to Hirsch, Steptoe singled to left field and Rea tailied. Nalle walked on an error by Wear and both players were advanced, Hunt hit to De Saulies, but it was too hot to handle and Steptoe romped home. Pinkerton bunted and Nalle scored, making Virginia's total ave more than Yale could run up in nino innings. Virginia added one run in the third and another in the fourth on hits by Nalle and Sapetne. In the sixth Rea beat the ball to first, and Bonney singled. Both advanced on Steptoe's bant and the former scored on Nalle's out. Two runs were placed to Virginia's credit in the ninth. With Nalle on second, Hunt lifted one of Simond's curves over the left-field fence for NO EARNED RUNS.

Ruth Wardrobe rolled into the Police ourt yesterday. She was black and inewy, and lean and kinky headed. The sinewy, and lean and kinky headed. The only similarity between her person and her name was that she was tall and full of corners. She wore a man's last summer's straw hat and a thread bare shawl and the balance of her wardrobe was contained in her pseudonym.

She was charged with beating Allee Gordon, hearly white, young, plump and tearful, once pretty, but now bloated and dirty and bruised.

Both women were in a whisky den. She of the furniture name said something displeasing to the aesthetic tastes of Alice and Alice threw a brick. Then Alice threw some more bricks and punctuated each throw with highly seasoned compliments and one of them (a brick) sailed into the har-room and hit a man. Then it was that Roth arose and said, where thou goest I will go, and she sailed into Alice, and when the ambulance doctor got through with Alice, she had five stitches in her scalp, not counting a black eye and lacerated cheek.

She recovered sufficiently to swear out a warrant. Ruth had one of the bricks in the recesses of her wardrobe which she brought along as a witness, and was invited to hold on her souvenit.

MRS. PINKHAM TALKS ABOUT OVARITIS.

Letter from Mrs. Carrie F. Tremper that all Suffering Women Should Read.

Ovaritis or inflammation of the ovaries may result from sudden stopping of the monthly flow, from inflammation of the womb, and many other causes. The slightest indication of trouble with the ovaries should claim your instant attention. It will not cure itself, and a hospital operation with all its terrors may easily result from neglect. The fullest counsel on this subject can be secured withoutcost by writing to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and asking for her advice. Your letter will be confidential and seen by women only.

WILLIAMS' SYNDICATE BUYS.

They Purchase Very Valuable Mineral Lands and Artesian Water Supply.

Mr. B. Randolph Williams, legal representative of Jno. L. Williams & Sons and of the syndicate represented by them and Oliver Middendorf & Co., of Baltimore returned this morning from Riemingaam Ala, where he closed a deal Saturday night for L500 cares of valuable minera and manufacturing property near Gate
City, about Six miles from Birmingham.
Mr. Williams says that the plans of the reference have not been definitely de-material valuable for road making and much used for that purpose because of its clastic properties. Iron furnaces are contemplated and the colargement of glass works already on the ground.

The lands are regarded as very valuable and Mr. Williams says the possibilities for industrial investment are large, and that while the plans are so far immature the property will be fully developed.

Among the leading features that in duced the syndicate to make the purchast is the large supply of artesian water of the lands. They dug a new well on the land last month and satisfied themselver that the supply is practicably unlimited.

that the supply is practicably unlimited.

The wells are on a plateau 160 feet above the City of Birmingham, and they expect to supply the water to that city and auhurban towns. The transaction involves an investment of about $150.00.

Mr. Williams avay this deal has nothing Mr. Williams says this deal has nothing to do with the alleged scheme of the Sanboard Air Line for the purchase of the East and West Alabama railroad from Cartersville to Peli City, Ala., and it extension from the the latter place to Birmingham, as reported.
